

WHAT WE DO

Connect military families through reading every day, no matter the distance.

OUR IMPACT

More than 3 million military family members connected through shared storytime moments since 1989.

United Through Reading Meets Urgent Needs

Millions of storytime moments are missed because of military life challenges. These moments of bonding, connection and learning are crucial for military families.

STORYBOOK BALL

At our annual Storybook Ball in San Diego, California, we honor and celebrate the families that serve our country every day. We pay tribute to the corporate, public policy, and military leaders whose vision and support have been vital to delivering United Through Reading's mission worldwide. Join us for these memorable evenings and celebrate those who have forged meaningful connections through read-aloud experiences.
